

COL. PHIL B. THOMPSON DIED LATE SATURDAY

Was Famous As Criminal Lawyer and Distinguished Himself in Two Wars.

Col. Phil B. Thompson, Sr., died Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home in Harrodsburg. His death was due to the infirmities of age. He would have been 88 years old on January 8, next.

He had been confined to his room for the past six months but up to that time he had retained his faculties to a remarkable degree. Colonel Thompson was a notable character, having lived in Harrodsburg during his entire life, with the exception of the time he spent in the Confederate army.

Famous as Criminal Lawyer.

He had been a practicing lawyer at the local bar and surrounding counties and immediate points in the State for more than sixty-five years. He was engaged in many prominent cases, among them being the famous case of the Commonwealth against Buford for the murder of Judge Elliott, for whom he secured an acquittal on the grounds of insanity. He also defended James H. Harrod for the killing of Robert Little, and secured his acquittal.

Defended Dr. Davis.

He defended Dr. Davis in the Woodford Circuit Court who jointly with Mrs. Munday was charged with poisoning Lowrey Munday, the husband of Mrs. Munday and the father-in-law of Dr. Davis.

It was alleged that Lowrey Munday was poisoned in order to get ten thousand dollars, the amount of insurance on his life. The evidence appeared to be conclusive, showing the guilt of the accused. Dr. Davis was sent to the penitentiary for 21 years from Woodford county. The case of Mrs. Munday was transferred to Fayette county where she was acquitted on technical grounds, and after she collected the ten thousand dollars insurance.

Very Beautiful Woman.

The wife of Dr. Davis was a very beautiful young woman. At no time was there ever a suspicion that she had anything to do with the death of her father.

After Dr. Davis was sent to prison she procured a divorce and was married to Col. Thompson.

Soldier in Two Wars.

Col. Thompson distinguished himself as a soldier in two wars. He served from April, 1846, to the close of the Mexican war, being Captain in the famous regiment of Colonel McKee who was killed at Buena Vista in February, 1847. Lieutenant Colonel Clay, son of Henry Clay, was killed at the same time.

September 21st, 1861, he determined to go South and took his three sons, Dr. Davis M. Thompson, Philip B. Thompson and John B. Thompson, with him, went through to Bowling Green and when a State government was set up under Governor Johnson, he was one of the ten members of the council, which, together with Governor Johnson, formed the State government.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Mrs. Alice Phillips.

Mrs. Alice Phillips, wife of County Judge W. H. Phillips, of Jessamine county died Saturday afternoon after a protracted illness of pulmonary trouble. Though her family and friends knew that her malady was incurable, her death was unexpected. She spent several winters in the South in the hopes of restoring her health.

Mrs. Phillips was one of the most widely known women in Jessamine county. She was a leading member of the Southern Methodist church and for a number of years was organist there. Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter, Miss Lenon Madison Phillips, the pianist and musical composer, and three step-children—Mrs. W. C. Denman, Mrs. George Phillips and Clem Phillips, of St. Louis.

Mrs. Phillips was a sister-in-law of Mr. T. S. and T. L. Phillips, of this city. Mrs. H. H. Phillips and Mr. James Phillips of this city attended the funeral which was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

John D. Hadley.

For the third time within the last eight months, the angel of death has entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hadley taking from them one of their children. The last visit was made at an early hour Sunday morning and their youngest son, John D., was the victim. Each of the children have died from the same cause, who were cough and pneumonia. The remains were brought to this city Sunday night on the L. & E. passenger train and the burial took place in the Winchester cemetery Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF COMERCIAL CLUB

Two New Factories For Winchester
—May Have Banquet For Burley Society.

The Executive committee of the commercial club held an important meeting at their room Monday. After the dispatch of routine business, the committee on factories made a report. It was in effect that a stone factory will be located here at once. It will make a specialty of monuments.

Another matter considered was the establishment in this city of a factory for the manufacture of harness appliances, on which there are patents. This matter was referred to the committee on factories.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Clark county members of the Society of Equity with a view to giving a banquet to the managers of the Burley Society of Equity, December 8th.

The committee decided to have a smoker and election of officers on the third Thursday in December, the 17th.

MANY DEMOCRATS FOR MATLACK FOR MAYOR

Ask That Young Progressive Business Man Make the Race
For the Office.

The city of Winchester stands second to no other town in the State of any thing like its size, and the time has arrived and is now here, that it is entitled to a high-class administration of its affairs, so, recognizing in Mr. D. T. Matlack, the young, progressive, public spirited business man, possessing all the qualifications to make a high-class Mayor, we desire to join in an earnest request that he become a candidate for this office, and believe that if he will do so, the people of Winchester will see to it that he is assisted and backed up by a high-class council of young, progressive business men.

If this can be realized Winchester with its annual income of something over $75,000.00 can be expected to grow and progress far in excess of anything in the past.

WILL NOT RUN FOR OFFICE OF COUNTY JUDGE

Mr. B. C. Fox Decides Not to Make the Race Against Judge Evans.

Deputy Circuit Clerk C. B. Fox, who has been being urged by his friends the past few days to enter the race for County Judge, has decided that he will not run. Monday morning, Mr. Fox expressed great thanks to his many friends who assured him of their support if he entered the race, but said that he did not care to run for the office.

BUYS THE INTEREST OF HIS PARTNER

Mr. H. H. Hall Takes Mr. W. W. Ecton's Interest in Firm of Hall & Ecton.

Mr. H. H. Hall purchased the interest of his partner, Mr. W. W. Ecton Saturday in the furniture and undertaking business of Hall & Ecton. Mr. Hall will continue the business under the style of Henry H. Hall.

Mr. Ecton will continue clerking in the store for awhile but has not yet determined what business he will ultimately engage in.

Suicides in Room 23.

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 30.—At his request Paul A. McDonald, a solicitor in the employ of a local newspaper, was assigned to room No. 23 at a hotel here. A few minutes later other guests were attracted by heavy breathing in the room and when attaches of the hotel entered, McDonald was found unconscious, having swallowed 30 grains of morphine. His death occurred several hours later. McDonald, whose home was in Atlanta, Ga., was 35 years of age.

Clergymen's Salaries.

The archbishop of Canterbury receives $75,000 a year, and the curate of East Kennett $200. It is said that the archbishop and the curate find it difficult to make both ends meet at the end of the year.—Newark News.

"Paid in Full at Lexington."

At the Lexington Opera House to-night the offering will be "Paid in Full" the Eugene Walter play, which is one of the striking successes of recent years. The fame of this piece is known to all who keep in touch with the stage and its presentation is sure to awaken a degree of interest that will not be exceeded by any theatrical announcement for the year.

It has been asserted by dramatic writers that "Paid in Full" is the greatest play by any American author in the last fifteen years. It has been said too, that it does pioneer work in native dramatic writing, in that it breaks away from theatrical conventions and handles American life with daring and frankness.

No Manager in the State can boast of a higher order of plays than Mr. Scott brings to the Lexington Opera House.

Very Much Better.

Mrs. J. F. McLean, who became supposedly insane last week, was removed to the home of her mother, at Ashland, in a much improved condition, Sunday night.

Born, Saturday afternoon, to Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Nunan, a fine son.
